WHY DO PEOPLE NEED ADULT FOSTER CARE?

Adult foster care (AFC) homes offer 24-hour personal care, protection and supervision for individuals who cannot live alone but who do not need continuous nursing care. AFC is one of the residential alternatives available. Other options include homes for the aged or nursing homes. If you are uncertain about the level of care needed, check with your doctor or the Adult Services Unit of your local Department of Human Services for assistance.

The reasons for needing adult foster care may vary. Persons in need of adult foster care may be:

- Aged.
- Developmentally disabled.
- Physically impaired.
- Emotionally impaired.

Care may include assistance with bathing, grooming, dressing, eating, walking, toileting or dispensing of medication.

HOW DO I CHOOSE AN ADULT FOSTER CARE HOME?

There are many types of AFC homes. Before making a decision, we strongly recommend you visit the home, talk with the residents, consider the neighborhood and question the provider.

These agencies may help you in the selection process:

- Department of Human Services local office.
- Bureau of Children and Adult Licensing local unit.
- Community mental health board.

- Michigan Department of Community Health.
- Michigan Rehabilitation Services.
- Local Office on Aging.

The numbers and addresses are in your local telephone directory.

When selecting an AFC home, it is important that you clearly understand the services to be provided and the cost of those services.

ARE ADULT FOSTER CARE HOMES REGULATED?

Yes. The Bureau of Children and Adult Licensing licenses and regulates adult foster care homes.

WHAT DOES IT COST TO LIVE IN AN ADULT FOSTER CARE HOME?

AFC homes are private businesses and may set their own rates. Each resident is responsible to pay the homeowner for the cost of his or her care. Once you locate a home that provides the services needed, ask the
